Kohl's Donates Additional $1 Million to American Red Cross for Hurricane Relief Efforts

MENOMONEE FALLS, Wis., September 12, 2017– In the wake of Hurricane Irma, Kohl's (NYSE: KSS) announced an additional $1 million cash donation to provide support in the relief and recovery efforts from the storms that continue to devastate communities in the Southeastern United States. In total, this brings Kohl's donation to the American Red Cross, which is delivering vital emergency supplies and services in the impacted areas, to $2 million. Kohl's will also continue to provide financial assistance to associates who have been directly and significantly impacted by the storms.

"With several storms impacting our country, it's more important than ever that Kohl's lend our support to the American Red Cross," said Kevin Mansell, Kohl's chairman, CEO and president. "Our hearts are with our associates and all of the families impacted, as they work to recover. We know these affected communities will come back stronger than ever."

In addition to financial contributions, Kohl's is encouraging its associates to volunteer in support of relief efforts through Kohl's volunteer program. To inquire about coordinating a Kohl's volunteer program event, contact your local Kohl's store and ask to speak with the store manager about the event.
