

Kohl's Announces $3 Million in Donations for Family Health and Wellness

Kohl's to support more than 300 nonprofit organizations nationwide this holiday season, an extension of the company's ongoing commitment to health and wellness

MENOMONEE FALLS, Wis., November 27, 2018 – Kohl's (NYSE: KSS) announced today – in the spirit of Giving Tuesday – the company will award $3.2 million in grants to more than 300 nonprofit organizations across the country that work to improve the health and wellness of children and families as part of its national giving program, which is an extension of the company's ongoing commitment to health and wellness.

"Giving back to the communities our Kohl's associates and customers call home has always been the heart of who we are as a company. This Giving Tuesday, as an extension of our ongoing efforts to support family health and wellness, we're thrilled to announce that we will be providing $3 million in grants to support organizations that champion the health and wellbeing of children and families," said Michelle Gass, Kohl's chief executive officer. "Our associates support their communities year-round by volunteering for local charitable organizations. This grant program is just one more way that we can pitch in to make a positive difference at the local level."

More than 300 organizations will receive a $10,000 grant from Kohl's. The donations made through Kohl's National Giving Program are made possible through Kohl's philanthropic program, Kohl's Cares®, which sells children's books and toys and donates 100 percent of the net profit to charitable initiatives nationwide.

Kohl's congratulates all of the hundreds of grant recipients, including:

- Lunches of Love (Rosenberg, Texas) – Lunches of Love is committed to ending childhood hunger by serving more than 496,000 lunches annually to area students who would not otherwise receive a meal during extended school holidays and on the weekend.
- Variety Children's Charity of Kansas City (Shawnee, Kan.) – Children who have one or more of over 150 cognitive or physical disabilities receive equipment from Variety Children's Charity of Kansas City so they can be an active part of the Kansas City community.
- Soccer in the Streets Inc. (Atlanta, Ga.) – Soccer in the Streets, Inc. empowers nearly 5,000 underserved youth in the Atlanta area through soccer training, character development, mentoring and employability programs.
- Special Equestrians (Fort Meyers, Fla.) – Each week, Special Equestrians provides therapeutic riding lessons to nearly 100 participants who have a cognitive or physical disability to improve their physical, mental and emotional well-being.
- Special Olympics of Southern California (Los Angeles, Calif.) – Special Olympics of Southern California improves the lives of 37,000 athletes with intellectual disabilities through sports training.
- Boys & Girls Club of Greater Salt Lake (Murray, Utah) – More than 7,500 children participate in life-changing programs offered by Boys & Girls Club of Greater Salt Lake that help them develop the skills they need to establish strong relationships and make healthy choices, which they carry with them into adulthood.
