

Kohl's to Gift More Than $3 Million in Grants to Nonprofits Across the Country This Holiday

Through Kohl's National Giving Program, the company deepens its support of family health and wellness through donations to more than 300 local organizations

MENOMONEE FALLS, Wis., December 3, 2019 – In support of the company's ongoing commitment to family health and wellness, Kohl's (NYSE: KSS) announced today it will donate $3.2 million in grants to more than 300 nonprofit organizations serving the needs of local families this holiday season as part of its national giving program. Now in its second year, Kohl's National Giving Program gives its associates the opportunity to support the causes and organizations in their communities that they are passionate about by letting them nominate each year's grant recipients.

"On behalf of the entire company, we are honored to celebrate and support this group of deserving organizations that are addressing vital needs in communities across the country every single day," said Michelle Gass, Kohl's chief executive officer. "Once again, we asked our associates to identify the nonprofit organizations that are near and dear to their hearts this Giving Tuesday, and we are thankful to honor those who work diligently to support the health and wellness of children and families nationwide."

Each of the more than 300 nonprofit grant recipients will receive $10,000 to support their continuous efforts to help families in their communities. The donations made through Kohl's National Giving Program are made possible through Kohl's philanthropic program, Kohl's Cares®, which sells children's books and plush, donating 100 percent of the net profit to health and wellness organizations nationwide.

Kohl's is proud to congratulate all the deserving grant recipients, including:

- Camp Courageous (Monticello, Iowa) – Camp Courageous provides year-round recreational and respite care opportunities for individuals with special needs by offering a variety of services including week-long camp sessions, respite care weekends, 24/7 emergency respite care, family camp sessions, a travel program, and more.
- Dogs4Diabetics (Concord, Calif.) – Dogs4Diabetics (D4D) empowers insulin-dependent diabetics to live relentlessly awesome lives with the support of a Medical-Alert Service Dog.
- Florida Epilepsy Services (Tampa, Fla.) – Florida Epilepsy Services offers services including case management and mental health counseling to more than 500 individuals and families throughout Polk, Highland, Hardee and Hillsborough counties.
- Girls Inc. of Shelbyville and Shelby County (Shelbyville, Ind.) – Girls Inc.'s central goal is empowering and inspiring girls and young women. Serving girls ages 5-18, the organization's research-based programming is delivered by trained professionals who focus on the development of the whole girl, supporting, mentoring and guiding girls in an affirming environment.
- South Texas Food Bank (Laredo, Texas) – The South Texas Food Bank is on a mission to alleviate hunger in South Texas communities and eliminate barriers of access to nutritious food through initiatives including its Backpack and Adopt-A-Kid Programs.

- Travis Mills Foundation (Rome, Maine) – Travis Mills Foundation supports recalibrated veterans and their families through long-term programs that help these heroic men and women overcome physical obstacles, strengthen their families, and provide well-deserved rest and relaxation.
