Kohl's Donates More Than $500,000 to Milwaukee-Area Nonprofits Through its Hometown Giving Program

Kohl's recognizes more than 30 remarkable nonprofits across the Milwaukee community serving local families

MENOMONEE FALLS, Wis., January 5, 2021 – Kohl's (NYSE: KSS) is continuing to celebrate families and communities this season by donating more than $500,000 in grants to more than 30 deserving Greater Milwaukee Area nonprofit organizations. Ranging from $5,000 to $50,000, the grants are made possible through Kohl's Hometown Giving Program and will empower the selected nonprofits to continue in their missions of delivering exceptional experiences and services to local families in the Milwaukee community.

Kohl's Hometown Giving Program is an opportunity for Kohl's to reach even more local nonprofits in need of grant support. Expanding upon the company's traditional hometown partnerships, Kohl's Hometown Giving Program allows Kohl's to celebrate and support Milwaukee community organizations that strive to make a difference all year long. Since the inception of Kohl's Hometown Giving Program, the company has donated more than $2 million to a variety of nonprofit organizations in the Milwaukee area.

"Kohl's is committed to serving families in the Milwaukee community and we are proud to support these organizations that make a positive impact in our hometown. The Kohl's Hometown Giving Program is just one more way that Kohl's provides hands-on assistance and financial support from Kohl's and Kohl's associates," said Jen Johnson, Kohl's senior vice president of communications. "We offer our congratulations to this year's grant recipients that are doing incredible work all year round to provide services, support and resources to families across our community. It's an honor to support all of you."

Kohl's is proud to congratulate each of the Hometown Giving Program grant recipients, including:
