Kohl's Donates $150,000 to the American Red Cross to Aid Hurricane Ian Relief Efforts

Kohl's also provides financial assistance to associates through relief fund

MENOMONEE FALLS, Wis., Oct. 6, 2022 – Kohl's (NYSE: KSS) today announced a donation of $150,000 to the American Red Cross, which is delivering vital relief to communities impacted by Hurricane Ian.

"Our thoughts go out to everyone impacted by Hurricane Ian, including all of our Kohl's associates, customers and their families," said Michelle Gass, Kohl's chief executive officer. "Kohl's is committed to the communities we serve, and we are proud to support the American Red Cross as they help these communities recover and rebuild."

In addition to the company's support of the American Red Cross, Kohl's is providing aid to impacted associates and customers through the following benefits and programming:

- Kohl's Associate Relief Fund that gifts emergency financial support to Kohl's associates who have been impacted by the hurricane.
- Emergency compensation for associates who work at Kohl's stores that closed as a result of the hurricane
- Associate care packages, including items such as water and non-perishable food, cell phone chargers, and other essentials
- Employee Assistance Program and counseling for Kohl's associates
- Limited-time discount in-stores for Kohl's associates and customers in communities affected by Hurricane Ian.

Kohl's is also encouraging its associates to volunteer in support of relief efforts through Kohl's Volunteer Program. In an effort to increase the impact our associates are making to help provide relief in the wake of Hurricane Ian, Kohl's is doubling the reward grant to $50 per hour for our associates who volunteer with the American Red Cross.

Kohl's is committed to supporting the thousands of communities the company is a part of across the country, especially in times of need. Since 2001, Kohl's has donated more than $9.7 million to support the American Red Cross with disaster relief efforts.
